"Everything we can be, with Christ in our hearts."

A cold week, but a good one!

The children's (and staff) hopes of a snow day melted away almost as quickly as the actual snow did – nice while it lasted, but we are glad it didn't take hold!

Year 4 were on the road again this week, visiting the choir outreach programme at Westminster Cathedral. They also had their obligatory 'dab-heavy' photo at the gates of the palace, and clearly Mr. Phillips was the runway winner of the 'Best Hat' category!

Our girls' football team did us proud this week too, giving a great account of themselves at a cold and blustery New River Centre. Thanks to Mr. Quin and to Ms. Kavanagh for their care and tactical genius (respectively). Another great week here at school – have a lovely weekend, and we'll see you all on Monday!

Lord, we pray that this year...

Prayer for our community

At the mass to start the new year, Fr. Joe shared a prayer – a prayer that helped us reflect on the dizzying array of emotion, feeling and challenge that life can throw at us, sometimes all in the same week! At assembly this week, we made that personal to us, and looked at the times we have enjoyed happiness, love, success and determination. These times help us to endure the times where we face trials, failures and even sorrow. We prayed that life gives us 'Enough of everything.'

We have enough HAPPINESS to keep us agreeable

Enough TRIALS to keep us strong

Enough SORROW to keep us human

Enough FREEDOM to keep us happy

Enough SUCCESS to keep us eager

Enough FAILURE to keep us

Enough DETERMINATION to keep going

Enough HOPE to look forward

New findings indicate that we "don't need other stuff."

Enough LOVE to

Celebrating with our parish

It has become a habit that our children get regular opportunities to celebrate mass with our parishioners. It is important that we show them that the church is the heart of our community and that the school is an extension of its mission. Fr. Joe welcomes us every Wednesday, and has encouraged the children to share school life with the congregation at the end. This week – Volcanoes! A lovely idea all round.

Girl Power!

SJV Girls Excel in THFC Tournament

Well done girls!

It was the turn of our girls today to take part in the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation Premier League competition.

They did brilliantly well, progressing to the quarter final stage (overcoming Our Lady of Muswell along the way, for those that are interested). Given that it was the first time that we have fielded a Girls' side, it bodes well for the future and we look forward to more of the same!

Congratulations to St. Mary's, who progressed to the finals and will now go on to the next stage.

The Duchess of Cornwall joined children at a @Cleanup_UK litter pick event in Malmesbury, East London, this afternoon, before attending a reception with local residents.

HRH was welcomed by a litter pick 'Guard of Honour'!

By Royal Appointment

I am sure that many of you recognise the trademark style of the sumptuous cake that the Duchess of Cornwall is digging into – yes, you've guessed it! It's a 'McGaw Original'.

We've been treated to cakes like these over the years to support our fairs, raffles or to just treat the children and the staff. We've always known that they were good enough for royalty!

The return of the Year 2 Buccaneers

Things have got very 'Piratey' down in class 2! They are really enjoying their new topic and have brought in some stunning projects to share. I got them to their best Pirate Pose for the camera (along with an 'Arrrrrrrgh' for good measure). Brilliant work class 2!
