Staying Safe Online

This week, we joined in the national Safer Internet Week and thought about how we can best keep ourselves safe, whilst enjoying the many benefits of the Internet – it's a wonderful thing, as you can see from our year 4's creative painting of what the internet might look like. Take a look at the safety tips, read the school's web page, which is full of good advice and links.....and stay safe!

Our eSafety Top Tips!

1 People you don't know are strangers. They're not always who they say they are.

2 Be nice to people like you would on the playground.

3 Keep your personal information private.

4 If you ever get that 'uh oh' feeling, tell a grown-up you trust.

Ms. Escorcio stepping down from Chair to Vice Chair, and Ms. Quilliec is taking on the position of Chair going forward. We are all immensely grateful both for Ms. Escorcio's efforts over the last year, and for Ms. Quilliec for agreeing to take on the role going forward. Our Friends are amazing – we are so lucky to have them!

'Good' King Hal retells 'His Story'

Tudor history comes to life in Class 5

Sometimes, there's nothing like hearing it from the horses mouth! This week, Class 5 invited the embodiment of King Henry VIII to the school for a up-close and personal history lesson.

They got to meet, talk with and ask questions of one of the most iconic figures in British history. Also on the agenda was a spot of jousting in the hall, an opportunity for a photoshoot with Henry, an insight about Tudor health, hygiene, schooling and, of course, his infamous relationships with his six wives. An outstanding day of learning and great fun too!

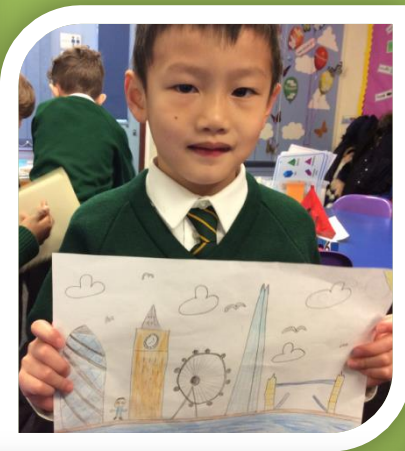

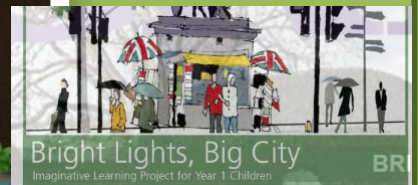

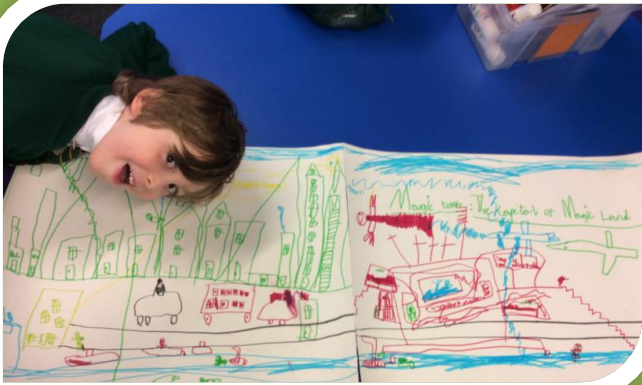

Bright Lights, Big City!

Year one have been learning about cities around the world, and much about our very own London! They have made some incredible models, from the familiar cityscapes of London, to cities from Albania and to African villages.

I spent a lovely morning with them, talking about what they'd learned and how they'd built their models, painted their pictures or created their wonderful diaries! Well done parents on sharing this time with your children – an absolute pleasure!
