The Best We Can Be

On a very Summery end to the week, we welcomed Fr. Joe to school to help us celebrate (and prepare) for another new academic year.

It is always worth remembering that we are an integral part of the Church's mission, and we are lucky to be part of such a supportive and passionate parish. Fr. Joe made all assembled (children and staff) promise to work as hard as they can this year, so a promise made during mass is a secure contract indeed! We have all made a great start on this promise over that last couple of weeks, and we have come to expect this as normal at St. John Vianney. Enjoy the last of the Summer sun and have a wonderful weekend!

Reception Class 2019-20

A big shout out to our new Reception class! It was smiles all round as they settled into 'big school' this week, and we had nothing beyond 'regulation' wobbles from them (and their parents)! It is lovely to know that we are going to get to see this group grow, mature, learn, laugh, and cry, I'm sure, over the next 7 years!

They have already made the school a better place – great start!

Full Time from Monday
23rd September!

THE NEXT GENERATION

Arty Afternoons in Year 5

Year 5 were busy creating 'creation' wheels in an art / RE cross-over this afternoon.

Tribal Art in Year 3

Some beautiful 'cave paintings' from year 3 this week – they were super-chilled-out creating these masterpieces!

Year 2 – getting on with writing, getting on with science!
